THE FARR GENEALOGY:

WITH INDEX TO THE NAMES.

COMPILED BY REV CHAS W. SINNETT, CARTHAGE, SOUTH DAKOTA.

THE FARR GENEALOGY.

COMPILED BY REV. CHAS N. SINNETTm CARTHAGE, SO, DAKOTA.

From Marvin A. Farr, Chicago, Ills.," Numerous Farrs were in Essex County, England, in the I7th Centary, at the time when George Farr,, the American Ancestor, appears to have come to Boston and Lynn, Mass.,

"From the list of marriages in London, England, :' Benjamin Farr, Gent, of Great Barnstead, Essex County, England, and Elizabeth Johnson, I5 .' They had children, Benjamin and Elizabeth Farr. It has been suggested that Ancestor George Farr of Lynn, Mass., was their child, but no clear proof this has been established.

" The Farr Arms; Gules, a soltaire, or, cortised argent, betweeb two fleur de lis of the last. Crest, on the point of a sword in pale ppr a maunch ger."

Some of Marvin A.Farr's excellent data on the Farr Family was published by the Lewis Publishing Com., in N.Y.City, compiled by Mr. Richard Cutter. Much of this data was kindly contributed for this Genealogy, as Mr.Farr spent much time in careful study of the Farr Family.

THE THORY OF A SCOTTISH ANCESTOR FOR THE FARRS.

From Mrs . A.J Healey, 97 Lockhart St., Wilkes-barre, Pa: My father,, Nathan Farr of N.Y. State always asserted that the Farrs were of Scotch origin. He said that they left Scotland for the sake of their religion whan Cromwell was powerful. One of these, Sir Thomas Farr, was dragged to death for heresy. He was a lawyer of Edinboro, Scotland, in I640. Our Farrs are dark and swarthy , which helps to prove father's theory of a Scottish origin."

From Marvin A. Farr, Chicago, " The above theory is of interest in connection in regard to the conjectures regarding our Ancestor Stephen Farr. Scoth prisoners were sent to America as settlers, I652---I656. Perhaps Stephen Farr, or his father, who is supposed to have been Thomas Farr, was one of these prisoners."

SAVAGE'S ACCOUNT OF THE EARLY FARRS OF NEW ENGLAND.

"Barnabas Fawer (FARR) of Dorchester and Boston, Mass., died Dec I3th, 1602I654. His Will was printed in the New England Histirical & Genealogical Magazine in I85I, page 305. His first wife died Sept 27th, I642, Barnabas Farr M(2nd) Mch I0, I643 Grace Negoose , a sister of Jonathan Negoose, J.N. Clerk of the Courts, I65I, and onward. This 2nd wife afterwards married John Johnson of Roxbury, Mass., Surveyor General of the Colony. "

The children of Barnabas Farr:
(2nd generation) Eleazor Farr b Sept 18, 1644.
He made his Will Nov 13th., 1685, " being bound for sea ."
He probably never returned from this voyage.

Married May 28th, 1662 by John Endicott, Mary Preston, the daughter of Deacon Daniel Preston. Eleazor Farr and his wife Mary mortgaged their place in Boston, Mass., Sept 30, 1664 to Christopher Gibson, who, in Sept 30th, 1664, assigned the same to Daniel Preston of Dorchester, Mass, he being the father of Mrs. Eleazor Farr. It is said that Eleazor Farr's widow married July 6th, 1670 Samuel Jenkins of Scituate, Mass.

ANCESTOR GEORGE FARR OF LYNN, MASS.

GEORGE FARR born I594 ; d at Lynn, Mass., Oct 24, I662. He came to Lynn, Mass., in Higginson's fleet, Summer of I629. He is named in that Company's second letter of Instruction to Governer Winthrop, in these words, " Ag is also in charge of one George Farr , now sent over to the shipwrights formerly sent. "

George Farr was a shipwright at Salem, Mass., before he removed to Lynn, Mass , as is commonly supposed. In I630 he appears as one of the fifty families at Lynn, Mass., whimh is now Sagus, Mass . Among these families was John Taylor. Newhall's History of Lynn, Mass., page I20, " George Farr was a farmer in the eastern part of Essex St.; He was admitted as a Freeman, May 6th, I635. He died I66I.His wife Elizabeth was buried Mch IIth, I787 . The children of Ancestor George Farr were: John Farr---Lazarus Farr-- Benjamin Farr--- Joseph Farr- - Mary Farr-- Martha Farr-- Elizabeth Farr--- Sarah Farr. George Farr came over in I629, and was a shipwright."

On the I5th day of the 2nd Month, 0657, George Farr, aged 63 years, testified that Black Bill, or Duke William, so called, was the true owner of Nahant, Mass (so far as he ever heard), and Thomas Dexter bought Nahant of him. (Dexter testified that he bought it 26 years ago.) The ownership of Nahant was a burning question then, and as late as I872, when the whole question of ownership was revived, and the testimony of George Farr was published .(Vide Supreme Judicial Court of Mass.. Nov, term, of I872; page 3I.)

Beforre the Court of I657 George Farr testified that he was 63 years old, and so must have been born about I594. His wife Elizabeth testified to her age , was which showed that she was born in I707. In a Case of June I684 she tesitified that she had lived at Lynn, Mass., 54 years , which would make her arrival there I630, as is certified by other statements. If she died in I687 she would probably be 80 years old, and was prenbably about 20 years old when she married George Farr. Evidenvoe on these points was no doubt clearly givan in the early records of the Ist Church of Lynn, Mass., covering the years, I630---I763, but there were burned.

George Farr married before I630 Elizabeth Stowers, who was born about I607; died Mch. ,I687; buried Mch II, I687: the daughter of Nicholas Stowers, who was made a Freeman at Charlestown, Mass., May I8, I6 3I , and died in that town May I7t , I646. His wife Amy died before I685. Nicholas Stowers was one of the eleven earliest settlers of Charlestown, Mass., and he probably came in Higginson's fleet to Salem, Mass., as he was at Charlestown in I629. In his Will he gave "Daughter Farre a Great Bible." He name , and that of her husband , was not given in this Will .Wyman says in his History of Charlestown Mass,"She was the wife of Robert matter agree in the opinion that this "daughter" was Elizabeth, wife of George Farr of Lynn, Mass. A fine account of the Stowers Family is given in Wyman's History of Charlestown, Mass.

The following account of the children of Ancestor George Farr of Lynn, Mass, has been compiled from Savage's account, and from long search through many old records. They are 2nd Generati

(2nd Generation) John Farr, who died Oct 29, 1672. It is thought that he was 21 years old at the time of his death. His Will states that he "was a Single Man." He mentions his mother, Elizabeth, and that he "had only two natural brethren and three natural sisters." He gives the names of the brothers as Joseph and Benjamin. His sisters' names are not given in the Will. He mentions brother-in-law, Nicholas Hutchins, John Holmes, and Matthias Farnsworth. He also mentions he "cozen" (used in the sense of niece) "Mary Clark, a motherless child." Richard Stowers was executor of this Will of John Farr, and Joseph Farr was bondsman.

(2nd generation) Lazarus Farr, who died Dec 9th, 1669. It is thought that he was about 21 years old at the time of his decease. Richard Stowers was Executor of his Will. "And is also Guardian of Benjamin Farr." This Will names the brothers John and Benjamin. The Will was witnessed by Benjamin Richards and Nicholas Hutchins. Lazarus Farr was probably unmarried, no mention of his wife and children being found in the Probate Records.

(2nd generation) Joseph Farr who died at Lynn, Mass., Feb 3d, 1737, in the 90th year of his age. He was made a Free man May 24, 1682. His Will only mentions the son Joseph, Jr, and a grandson, Nathan Dennis, whose mother was deceased.

"Joseph Farr entered a Petition; said he was mad; thought his son Joseph had dealt hardly with him, as he was to support him in his old age. He thought Joseph, Jr did not compose the Will. He, Joseph Farr, Senior, had come to Stow, Mass., to live with son Joseph, and said Joseph had appropriated his moveable goods to his own use."

"Elizabeth Taylor of Lynn, Mass., widow of George Taylor, of Lynn, says in a Deed dated Aug 30th, 1687 (Essex County, Mass., Registry of Deeds, 8, 199) that 30 years ago she took Joseph Farr, son of George Farr of Lynn, Mass, in his childhood and youth to be our adopted son, with the willing and free consent of his father and mother--- hath so lived with us all the days of my beloved husband, George Taylor ---- who hath, both living and dead, looked upon the said Joseph Farr as his adopted son, who should, after

"One Mary Farr married June I6, I658 James Mycall of Braintree, Mass. the marriage solemnized by Major Atherton."

(3d) Twins, James Mycall & Rebecca, Mycall, ; she M. July I6, I679 Richard Thayer.

Several writers doubt that the above Mary Farr was the daughter of Ancestor George Farr . This given below is, however, given as authentic.

"Mary Farr, daughter of George Farr, of Lynn, Mass., Married before I642 (as his 2nd wife) Matthias Farnsworth of Lynn, Mass, who died I678--9, aged 77 years; about I660 he removed to Groton, Mass., perhaps he and his family returned to Lynn, Mass., during the Indian Wars."

Lived at Groton, Mass.

(3d) Elizabeth Hutchins b June I5th, I670.

(2nd generation) Sarah Farr .
Married before I672 John Holmes.
Savage says that there was a John Holmes in Dorchester, Mass, who was probably the son of George Holmes, a member of the Roxbury, Mass., Church, who, by his wife Sarah, had a son George Holmes who was baptized July IO, I670.
"There was a John Holmes at Cambridge, Mass., who removed to Salem, Mass., in I673; had a wife , Sarah."
" A John Holmes was a Proprietor of Stow, Mass in I700, and may have been there a few years previous to that date. In the presence of John Holmes , a Deed of land. which Jonathan Farr bought in Stow, Mass., Oct I6th I700, but it does not appear in the rating of Stow, Mass., I688."

"An unidentified John Farr was at Newport, R.I., I638."

ANCESTOT THOMAS FARR AND DESCENDANTS.

Ancestor Thomas Farr was for a long time considered as a descendant of ancestor George Farr of Lynn, Mass. But all have carefully studied the Lynn Records, as well as the early records of other towns where the early members of the Farr Family lived, have been convinced that Thomas Farr was a brother of Ancestor George Farr of Lynn, Mass. Among the decisions of many writers on this Farr Line which produced so many noble men and women, the statements of Mr. Anan Titus cover the ground in a very careful and convincing manner, " The only information that we have of this Ancestor Thomas Farr is that, on the 6th of Nov., 1654 .. he bought land of Daniel King. In Vol I, page 3[illegible], Essex County, Mass., Deeds, is the Deed from Daniel King Gent and wife Elizabeth of Lynn, Mass., to Thomas Farr, in consideration of 128 pounds and 10 shillings; several parcels of land; one on Saugus Sycamore Hill (in what is now Swampscott, Mass.); also 28 acres in Rumney Marsh; and two other pieces of land; in all 60 acres. The name is clearly spelled Farr, and could not have been Farrar, as some writers have supposed. In 1684 Ralph King, son of this Daniel King, sold a part of the land which he had inherited from his father in this same Saugus region mentioned above. This land was bounded on one side by the land of John Farr. It is my idea that this John Farr had inherited this land from Thomas Farr, just as Ralph King had inherited land from his father, Daniel King. There is no other John Farr mentioned in New England history at that time. If this John Farr of Lynn, Mass., in 1685, went to Stow, Mass., it shows clearly that the Thomas Farr who was in Stow, Mass., in 1708, was a brother of John Farr, and named for his father. I am also very sure that Stephen Farr was a brother of John Farr. "

As so little is known of this John Farr, we will take up the study of his brother, Stephen Farr of the Second Generation.

(2nd generation) Stephen Farr. He probably lived in that part of Concord, Mass., , which, in 1683, became the town of Stow, Mass. The records show that in that year he was at Concord. "He was a very faithful soldier in King Philip's War, and his Company was commanded by Nathaniel Davenport, who was slain, Dec 19th, 1675, and the command given to Captain Edward King. At the time of this service Stephen Farr was a resident of Concord, Mass."

From Middlesex County, Mass., Deeds, May 30th, 1766. Stephen Farr of Stow, Mass., yeoman, for 40 pounds, to my daughter, Mary Hooker, the wife of Jacob Hooker of Stow, with the further promise that the said Mary pay Colonel Jennings' bill, Dr. Whiman's bill, and Dr. Prentice's bill., for doctoring me and my family hetetofore; and that I hold the improvement thereof during my natural life; I convey several pieces of land, containing 20 acres, of tillage, plow land, pasturage and orcharding, with half of a large dwelling house, barn, cooper's shop, ; bunded beginning southwesterly from the house at a heap of stones and runs westerly to another heap; then running southerly to a heap of stones at the northerly end of Ridge Hill ; then angling on the Ridge to a stake and stones; then running easterly in a straight line to a white oak tree; turning to Samuel Howard's Lott, No 2 ; then turning and running with the line of this lott to the road that leads to Concord, Mass,; then turning and running on said road to a heap of stones; thence across the road to a rail fence ; thence with said fence as it now stands to a stake or heap of stones; then to a black oak tree; then from thence in a straight line to a maple tree in the meadow , this last mentioned bound on my son, Stephen Farr's land ; then turning and running westerly to Chas. Whitney's land acrodes a ridge hill to a heap of stones; thence angling to a white oak trees bounding on my son Stephen's land ; thence running on said Farr's land ; then turning southerly bounding on said Farr's land and running through the middle of the barn floor; then turning to the north east corner of the house; thence westwardly to the middle of the house; then through the center of the house; thence to the bounds first mentioned. Also one other piece of land lying south of the houdse, beginning at the Town Way at the north corner of the orchard; then running southward on the sd. farm land to the corner of the fence as it now stands; then turning westwardly as the fence now standes bound on the sd. farm land to Capt, Taylor's land; then bounding on sd. Taylor'd land to the road; then bounding on the road to the first mentioned bound. Also one other piece of meadow, lying northerly of sd, Stephen Farr's , beginning at a stake in the meadow; running by Chas, Whitney's land to a stake in the ditch; then turning and running southerly to a fence in the meadow; thence westerly to the first bound. Also one other piece of meadow lying near Jeremiah Wood's meadow , beginning at a black oak tree in sd Wood' s line; running northerly in sd line to a white oak tree, marked; then turning eeastwardly to a stake in a ditch in Capt, Howard's land ; and then running southerly to another stake in sd ditch on sd. Howard's land ; thence westwardly to the first corner. Sd. lands lye in Stow partly and party in what is generally esteemed Aeton, Mass. Reserving as aforesaid the use of these premises during the natural life of Sarah , my wife, Stephen Farr.

Witnesses: Elias Farr and Henry Gardner.

Acknowledged Sept 12th, 1768; by also my right in Hildreth Farm, so called. Stephen Farr.

Stephen Farr married at Concord, Mass., May 28th, 1674 Mary Taylor) (Spelled Tailer in some data) born Sept 12th, 1649; daughter of William Taylor & Mary Merian.

From Marvin A, Farr, of Chicago, " Stephen Farr's children lived in Stow and Acton, Mass , for two or three generations. I think that their son Samuel went to Dead Littleton, Mass." The Concorad, Mass, Town Records give the names of the firs two children of Stephen Farr , with birth dates. The other children are arranged as other data seemed in indicate , although they may not be arranged in the proper orderr, as several writers arranged them in the way which to them seemed best. Mr. Marvan A, Farr and Mrs, Ida (Farr) Miller were of great aid in securing the following data Others also helped in a very generous manner.

Children of Stephen Farr and Mary Taylor.

(3d generation) Ebenezer Farr born Concord, Mass., Nov IO, I670. Many have tried to find his name as that of a Grandfather, or Ancestor . But no such clue has been discovered. The following explanation is given by the scholarly Anson Titus," The naming of a first child is a point of interest which we think will do away with the idea that Ebenezer is an ancestral name. The father had seen several months of service in the defence of the homes of the colonists from the Indians, King Philip and his followers. He was in the Company of Capt, Nathaniel Davenport when that leader was slain at Sudbury, Mass., Apr 2I, I676. For a year before that the people were in fear and trembling because of the savages. The devastation of many towns, the murder of some of the best men, the brutal treatment of the woman, and the captivity of the children, made the Puritans desperate. In Aug. I676 King Philip was driven to a swamp near his home at Mount Hope, near Bristol, R.I., and hunted to death. This gave rejoicing , as it was practically the end of the War . Stephen Farr, and other soldiers returned to their homes, and their ministers preached sermons of Thanksgiving, and there was great rejoicing in New England and Old England. In the midst of this time of great joy Nov IO, I676, a son was born to Stephen Farr. Believing in the great favors of Providence , and the Bible statement in Ist Samuel Chapter 7th, verse I3th, he and his Godly wife, named this son Ebenezer, 'Hitherto hath the Lord helped us.'. We must always take careful note of the intensity of religion in those days."

Nothing further has been found in regard to this son.

(3d generation) Stephen Farr, Jr b Nov 2, I679.

Married Sept 28, I708 Sarah Stone, who was born I648.

Data of the family pages I2----47.

RECORDS OF STEPHEN FARR OF THE 4th GENERATION .

(4th generation) Stephen Farr b Stow, Mass., about 1710?; a man of truly sterling qualities.

Reminiscences of Mrs. Betsy (Farr) Ingraham, of Cazenovia, N.Y.; " My great-grandfather, Stephen Farr, was a native of Northampton, Mass. He and his wife, Sarah Bennett, are buried at Pittsfield, Mass.,(she meant Hadley, Mass., as no Farrs are recorded at Pittsfield. except Joseph Farr, who was a member of the Town Committee on Church affairs in 1788, as per Smith(s History of Pittsfield, Mass.) Stephen Farr and wife lived through a long life and reared a large family. The most knowledge that il have of Stephen Farr came through my father's sister, Molly Farr, who married John Muir.Stephen Farr died in her early childhood, but she remembered him as having a large, muscular frame . To her childish mind he was a very good--lekking , agreeable old gentleman.His death was instantaneous. He was quietly smoking his pipe; his hands were seen to drop; his wife stepped up at that instant and sustained him from falling, but he had ceased to breathe.His wife, my great-grandmother, survived him for a few years.She died as suddenly as he had done, while drawing water at the well she fell, and immediately expired. I could never learn their ages at the time of their decease. Nor the date of these changes.But it must have been shorty after the Revolutionary War, for I think Stephen Farr was too old to serve in that War.But he had several sons who fought for the rich legacy of Liberty which we, their children, have enjoyed. Their same suddenness of death has occurred many times in the lives or their children and descendants. I think that both my grandparents died at Hatfield, Mass. Out of the large family of my great- parents I can only recall the names of five of the sons--- Levi---Stephen--- Silas--- James who died in Boyh ood-- and Joseph. There were several daughters, but I only recall Katy Farr , and her sisters, Mary Farr , who married Joseph Powers. Ephraim Powers married in 1750 Hannah Farr and Katherine Farr. "

Stephen Farr married Sarah Bennett.

The children may not be arranged in their proper order , as it was very fdifficult to secure even the meagre date that is given.

(5th generation) Levi Farr .

According to the family traditions he located in Ohio at quite an early dates .

THE RECORDS OF STEPHEN FARR OF THE 5th GENERATION.

(5th generation) Stephen Farr born I739; died at Fort Ann, N.Y, June Ist, I822. He was at Essex County, N.Y., in I803. From Marvin A.Farr , Chicago, " Stephen Farr had large holdings in three Mass,, Counties, according to the land records. He lived in the Mass , towns, Stow, Bolton, Cummington and Shutesbury. He appears to have left Cummington, Mass, at the close of the Revolutionary War. Some say that he removed to the Conn, Valley. I have not been able to find his location from I790 to I803, But he may have been in Canada as some of the Fars assert. In many of the places where he lived the Town Records were burned , so that we have been unable to get his complete data which we very much desire. I will give the list of his children as I remember them , with the hope that some one can supply the lacking dates."

Married at Acton, Mass, according to the Stow, Mass., records, Mch Ist, I764, Lois Randall . 8th generation) Levi Lyndon Farr b De Kalb County, Ills., May 2, 1839; d at Cedar Falls, Iowa, .

He spent most of his boyhood and youth in the usual manner of farm lads. He was educated in the neighborhood schools. In 1862 he removed to Fayette County, Iowa, and on Sept 22nd, 1862 located at Fayette, Iowa, Prompted by his patriotic spirit, he responded to his country's call for troops, and enlisted in Co, C, 6th Iowa Cavalry, serving in the Civil War for 3 years. His Regiment was assigned to the Department of the West, on duty among the Indian Reservations, and he participated in the battle of White Stone Hill, Dakota, Sept 3, 1863, where the 6th Iowa performed the task of surrounding the Indians and driving them in. When night closed down the Regiment went into camp on the battlefield. July 28th, 1864 the 6th Iowa Cavalry took part in the engagement with the Indians at Tukkahokutah, where the Red Men were driven out of their position among the rocks. Aug 26th, the Regiment had a skirmish with a heavy force of the Indians on the Little Missouri, after which it went into winter quarters at Sioux City, Iowa, and was mustered out there, Oct 17th, 1865. On his return home from the War Levi L. Farr resumed his occupation of farmer in Fayette County, Iowa, which occupation he followed until 1868, when he was elected Sherriif of Fayette County, Iowa, So ably did he discharge the durtes of that position that he was re-elected and served for 6 years. He was Deputy Sherrif for 4 years. He farmed a partnership with O.S. Taylor in the livery business; subsequently he was in the horse and live stock business. In addition to the extensive business of this Co. in buying and shipping horses, they kept on hand a number of the finest heavy draft horses of French stock. As a business man and citizen Mr. Farr 's course was always one to command confidence and respect. He made a competent and faithful Sherriff for 6 years and was always reliable in the discharge of his duty. He was a stalwart supporter of Republican principles, and exerted his influence and gave his support for the welfare and advancement of that party. He was a member of the W, Union, Iowa, Lodge, No, 25, Masonic, and of Abertheny Post, No 48, G.A.R.

Obituary," The relatives and friends of this city of Fayette Iowa, were surprised and shocked on Monday evening when the news was received of the death of Levi L. Farr. He had been visiting in Ills., and was on his way to his W. Union, Iowa, home. He stopped for a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Mc Masters at Cedar Falls, Iowa. He was apparently in the best of health and ate a hearty meal. He intended taking the train for home in the afternoon, but was taken sick a little after 2 O' clock, and, before medical aid could be summoned, he passed away, death being caused by an attack of Angina Pectoris. The remains were brought to W, Union, Iowa, on Tuesday morning, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Mc Masters. The funeral services wrue held at West Union, Iowa, at the

at the home of his daughter, Mrs, D.W Dwyer, and were conducted by the Rev. F.A. Gageby . Among the many important positio positions which he held was that of President of the Fayette County Agricultural Society." County Levi L. Farr

At the battle of Cedar Creek, Va., Oct I9, I864, he was taken prisoner, and in a few days was confined in Pemberton Tobacco Factory, Richmond, Va., having been deprived, together with his fellow prisoners, of most of his clothing, canteen, and money. From the 4th of the following November to Fe[illegible] 20th,, I865 he was confined in the 'Prison Pen,' at Salisbury, N.C. It had an area of about 4 acres, and was surrounded by a stockade of planks about I2 feet high. At one time thousands of prisoners were crowded into this place, in which was a 4--story factory building and 7 small buildings. The buildings were used as hospitals, while the so--called 'well' prisoners lived in tents and in holes dug in the earth., while a great many had no shelter at all." Mr. Farr said, "Many of our men would lie down in exposed places, never to waken. I saw one man who died by a fire. whose feet were half burned off. Seven of us united and began to dig a hole on the first day of our arrival there. We made it about 4 feet deep and about 8 feet wide, with a fireplace in one corner, covering it with 3 pieces of shelter tent. During the four months I was there the death rate was about I,000, per month, 96 having died in I day. After arrival there were 9 of my Regiment there--- only two lived to get home. Hundreds of soldiers were without hats, coats, or shoes. Yet many of these were obliged to pass their days in the open air, often exposed to storms of rain and snow. Those who survived this atrocious treatment were at length liberated, weak, haggard and emaciated emaciated.

(3d generation' Noah Farr, Jr., b Litchfield, Me., Dec 26, 1[illegible] d at W.Gardiner, Me., Apr 1[illegible], 1875; farmer. and his wife were devoted members of the Friends Church. Obituary;" His 27 grandchildren were nearly all earnest Christians. " From Gilbert Lotey Farr, Oskaloosa,Iowa, 1913, " In the home of my father, Noah Farr, Jr., nothin owed to stand in the way of service to God and the Church. very morning we were gathered for the reading of the Bible. his was followed by a worshipful pause, when mother often prayed. On Sunday afternoons we all gathered around Mother and 'read around' from the one precious Book. We always attended the mid ---week meeting , even in haying time, leaving our scythes in the swathes as we went to the house of God A, where often the worship was a silent one , In such an atmosphere we grew up , and is it wonder that of the 6 children and 27 grandchildren only one, so far as I know, is not a Christian? " About our only books were a few volumes of writings of the Friends , and our only periodical was Friends' Review , except that, for a few years our parents took the Youth's Companion, which was then small folio. Our schooling was about 8 weeks in the winter, the same in summer, until we were 14 years old. My mother's mother, Phoebe Hoag Meader, died when Mother was four months old, and she was brought up in the home of her Grandfather, Joseph Hoag, one of the noted Ministers among the Friends. He had quite a poetic gift. My mother often heard him tell of a vision which he had of a great conflict that was to come between the Northern and Southern States, in which much blood would be shed. This was published in his Memoirs, many years before the Civil War. Joseph Hoag said that, when the Lord called him to the Ministry, he told him that if he would be faithful his children would be Ministers to the fourth generation. This promise was fulfilled to his grandchildren in my Mother's Line also, to her 3 daughtrrs and myself, and these are now three of the fourth generation--- with others to follow. My Mother as a child often heard her Grandfather, Joseph Meag, tell of the cruel treatment, and sometimes of the taking of life, of the slaves, which he had seen during his travels in the South, and mother was an ardent advocate of the abolition of Slaverty. But, as the laws regarded them as property, she believed that the masters when freeing them, should be recompensed for them. For a number of years she paid double prices for molasses, cotton goods, from the countries where the slaves had been freed, rather than use the products of slave labor. So I was born and bred with sympathy for the colored race, and it doubtless had its influence in preparing me for the most important service of my life. How little mother though that, a few years after her death, the fulfillment of Grandfather's vision was to be, the means of freeing the opporessed, for whch she so longed."

REMINISCENCES OF GILBERT LOTAY FARR.

"IN 1861 I attended the Oak Grove Seminary at Vassalboro, Me, for one term. It was during that term that Fort Sumpter was fired on by the South. In February of the following year worked in C.M. Bailey's Woll cloth factory, Winthop, Me, in a crew of about 2000 men, 70 men, There, for the first time in my life, I heard low, indecent stories and vulgar talk, while religion and conversion were ridiculed .Only God's grace kept me from falling into sin. By the faithfulness of the Methodist Pastor, Rev. Pascal Brown, and the influence of the woman who afterwards became my wife, whom I met for the first time at a Church social, I was led to give my heart and life to Christ. I worked in that factory 7 years In the Spring of 1867 I removed with my wife and four-months' old boy to Oskaloosa, Iowa .One autumn I was in very trying circumstances, being out of employment, and, learning that a janiter was wanted at Penn College, I went home and told my wife that I thought of applying for the place, and we had a good laugh over it. I prided myself as belonging to one of the first families of the Friends, and the thought of such a lowly occupation was repulsive. But the winter was before us, and this work offered a means of living, so I applied for the position, and was gladly accepted by the College Board as they had wished for some time for one who would have a religious interest in the students. I had received the baptism of the Holy Spirit the year before, and this proved to be the Lord's place of service for me . I continued in that work for fifteen years, and from the testimonies of the students and their parents in the years since then I believe it was one of the most fruitful years of my life. It gave me a rare opportunity for personal work. For over four years I was Superintendent of the Sunday School with Professors from the College for my teachers. For five years I was Clerk of the Yearly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, and for two years Superintendent of Sabbath Schools in the Yearly Meeting.. For more than for years I taught and was Superintendent of the Colored Methodist Church, at their request. During these years the Lord led me into the preaching of the Gospel, and I was recorded as a Minister by the Oscaloosa Monthly Meeting. On Apr 2nd, 1883, my wife, with whom I had lived happily for 15 years, was suddenly taken by an illness of only ten days, and I was left with three small children. The older Friends kindly helped me in the care of these children, and two years later the Lord gave me another companion, who was not only a mother to my children, but an earnest Christian worker, with an intense love for souls In 1889 he became called to take pastoral charge of the New Charter Meeting, I. Miles N. of kaloosa, where I remained 1½ years, during which time the Lord made in the Church nearly 100 members. In the Autumn of 1890, feeling that our work there was done, we retured to Oskaloosa, and in the following January my wife was called to Heavenly service, after an illness of one week. Two little boys were born to us in the seven years that we lived together. Almost from the beginnibg of the Friends Meeting in Jamaica I had felt that the Lord would hsve me work there. In the Autumn of 1891 I was satisfied that the time had come to offer myself. In its planning the C.E. Union of the Iowa Yearly Meeting decided to support a Missionary in Jamaica. In my work at Penn College I had been intimately associated with a number of young people, and when they learned of my purpose they chose me to represeent them. In Nov, 1891 I arrived on the Island of Jamaica. The Yearly Meerting had appointed me Superintendent of the work, which was then in a very low condition. Arthur W.Smith, a young man from Worcester, Mass., was the only American Friend connected with this work. I had gone out with the conviction that the great lack had been that the friends at home had so little information in regard to the work, and I determined to supply it. There was a little unused hand press, and a few handsfull of type. After practicing a little on leaflets, at the beginnibg of 1892, a page at a time, I printed 800 copies of a little four---page sheet, and sent then to the Pastors at home. In a short time I had 60 subscribers. The Treasurer of the Board at one time said, 'That little paper saved the Mission.' The C.E. Union at once sent me a fine foot-power press and type. In the Fall of 1892 my daughter and a son joined me and in December Anna Mc Pherson went to become my wife. In 1893 I went to Maine for my two little boys, and in later years two boys were born to us. We continued in this Jamaica work until June, 1903. We saw it develope into a stromg Mission, with a wide influence in the Island. Our boys for some years had not had school privileges, and, on that account, we felt released from the work that we might come home and have them educated. We have devoted our time and strength to that end, nd, with blessed results, and, as opportunities have offered, we have been engaged in Home Mission work in the most needy parts of the city of Oskaloosa, Iowa."
